

ACCESS TO BASIC URBAN SERVICES

Hubert Julien-Laferriere
Vice President
Greater Lyon

A KEY ISSUE

- 1 billion people in the world without basic urban services
- 2 billions in 2030 ?
- Urban growth
- Decentralisation

CITIES NETWORKS: WHAT SHALL WE DO ?

- Developing decentralized cooperation
- Being stakeholders in the world agenda

Decentralized cooperation for access to basic urban services

- ✓ - an added value to development cooperation toward developing countries
- ✓ - decentralisation and basic urban services
- ✓ - a duty for local governments networks

Local governments : a stakeholder in the international regulation

- Can we face the challenge of urban poverty without the local governments' policy makers which are in charge of basic urban services?
- Toward a recognition of local governments responsibility